POMMARD

« LES PETITS NOIZONS »

Appellation

Pommard village and appellation stands just south next to Beaune and is world famous for being a firm, savoury and one of the most masculine appellation in Burgundy.

Vineyard

This unique parcel, "Les Petits Noizons", is located in the upper part of the village. This parcels are benefiting from southern exposure and is composed mainly with limestone soils benefiting from our care and Biodynamic philosophy. Our vines being located at the top of the hill; this would usually bring a very much thought after "hydric stress" which will reflect at best the unique terroir of Pommard.

Characteristic

After the challenges thrown with the vintage 2012, we were hoping for a peaceful 2013. But capricious Mother Nature had other ideas. Defying all weather forecasts, she never let up. After a long winter, a gloomy spring and a fine, providential summer, our pickers had to wait until the end of September to take up secateurs.

Wine-food pairing

Thick cut beefsteak, lamb, or stewed poultry, cheeses with well-developed flavours (Époisses, Langres and Soumaintrain, but also Comté)

Tasting note

The bouquet reveals blackberry, blueberry and redcurrant flavors. When aged, it will develop leather, peppery and chocolates aromas. A win with delicate structure and a strong personality.
